PEOPLE WANT TO KNOW

Why Some Things Are Done In This Town.

THE OLD MILLS OF THE GODS

Always Reduce to Pulp Those Who Come In Their Way—Why Was a Good Officer Turned Down For Doing His Duty?—An Incident Productive of Results.

We had an officer turned down not long since in East Liverpool. Why? What was his fault? Was he a bad man? Did he fail to attend to his duty? Did he fail to enforce the laws and ordinances?

These are pertinent questions. They are questions which should be carefully considered and put away in memory's safe, ready to be brought forth when the rottenness of our municipal government creates such a stench as to cause all clean voters to rise in wrath and wipe out the miserable clique, controlled by whisky, beer and men interested in the sale thereof; men who call themselves business men and gentlemen, but who are as far removed from the principles of true manhood and worth as is hades from heaven.

The officer referred to above was a good one, and he was attempting to keep the oath he had solemnly made to enforce the laws and ordinances of East Liverpool. Finally he found it necessary to pull a saloon which was running in open defiance of law, and the fiat went forth from the whisky ring that his head must drop into the basket—and drop it did, and the shock of the dropping will be as good seed, sown in rich ground, and the harvest will be the very opposite of that which the liquor league desires.

A leading Republican of this city, one of the war horses of the party, a man who is so situated that he can defy any and all men who use the party for selfish and base purposes, in direct opposition to law, order and decency, said to the writer of this article:

"There are a few rascals in this city, calling themselves Republicans, who are doing their utmost to ruin the party. They are connected with the liquor league, and are using the party simply for the pecuniary benefit it brings them. I know a case where these fellows, at the head of the liquor league, had absolute control of a certain number of votes in council, and they had determined to fill a vacancy in the police force with one of their own creatures, a man who would do just as the league told him. Unfortunately for the league, a leading member of council wanted the position for a friend. He pleaded for his friend's appointment, stating that he was a good man and would make a good officer; but a deaf ear was turned to all his pleadings, arguments and entreaties. He needed but two votes to place his man, and the liquor league could control three votes. Finally, when he could not control by reason, argument and fair play, he went before the liquor leaders, placed absolute evidence before their eyes that he knew of three men in council who had been elected by and through the use of whisky money, and were pledged to support the whisky ring in East Liverpool, and said to the leaders, in tones not to be misunderstood:

"Now, you skunks, I want two votes for my man. You have these three votes to use at your will. Two of your creatures must vote for my man, and the third can vote to suit himself."

Voters of East Liverpool, his friend received the necessary number of votes and was duly elected and is now on the force. What think you of such methods? Can good citizens stand idly by and permit such shameful work? Surely it is high time that clean men and honorable citizens should take control of our municipal affairs. There will be other revelations before many days go by.

A CHIMNEY FIRE

Roused the Residents of Lower Seventh Street.

A great deal of excitement was caused last evening at the lower end of Seventh street by the discovery of fire in the residence of James Tracy. The neighbors turned out to express opinions, while some of the spectators wanted to turn in an alarm, claiming the whole house was in a blaze, while in reality it was nothing more than a chimney fire. The application of a little salt put out the fire, but it was some time before peace and quiet was restored.

DURING EASTER WEEK

Will Miss Florence O'Meara and Mr. Charles K. Hillier Be Married.

The coming marriage of Miss Florence, daughter of Rev. Charles O'Meara, rector of St. Stephen's, to Mr. Charles K., son of Joseph Hillier, Esq., superintendent of the Pennsylvania Lead company, Pittsburg, is announced. The ceremony will take place during Easter week in Trinity church, Pittsburg, and will be performed by the bride's father, assisted by Reverend Doctor Arundell, rector of Trinity church.

THE SENATORIAL CONTEST.

A Few Votes Would Have Turned the Tide In Marshall's Favor.

[Communicated.]

EDITOR NEWS REVIEW.—Perhaps few of the voters of Columbiana county have any idea how close the contest for state senator was in the county, and how few a number of votes it would have taken to change the whole aspect of affairs. Had J. F. Marshall received 95 more votes in the county it would have given him 40 out of the 67 delegates. Mr. Blake carried the following townships by very small majorities: Knox 18, Perry 24, Salem 36, Wayne 2, Elkrun 15, total majority vote 95 with 20 delegates, while Marshall has an honest hold on Perry township yet.

From this it will be observed that, on this small hinge of 95 votes swings the close contest. It gives Mr. Marshall a very fair showing, notwithstanding that he had to contend against the executive committee of the county backed by the administration. County Treasurer Cameron, and all the other politicians and post office aspirants in the county, with all the means necessary at their command. Mr. Marshall is as good an administration man as any of those combined against him, and the truth of this will demonstrate itself sooner or later when the convention meets.

SEWER PIPE MANUFACTURERS

Are Endeavoring to Form a Combination In Pittsburg.

Representatives of 35 of the 40 firms manufacturing sewer and drain pipe met at the Monongahela House, Pittsburg, yesterday, to endeavor to organize an association to maintain prices, and, if possible, to lower the rates of discount from 90 to 85 per cent, making an advance of prices of 5 per cent. Five firms are accused of selling below the regulation trade price, and they are said to have demoralized the market. The meeting will be continued today, with a hope of completing the association, and endeavoring to get those firms not represented to join. Cast iron pipe is said to be taking the place of glazed clay pipe and diminishing the volume of trade materially. T. F. Anderson is at the meeting representing Knowles, Taylor & Anderson.

MESSENGERS MAKE MONEY

In Spite of the Stringent Rules of the Railroads.

In spite of the restrictions placed on individual messengers on railroads in the Pittsburg district the business still appears to be flourishing. The Adams express men say outside parties carry more goods on the trains than the regular express companies operating over the line on contract with the company. Some time ago the railroad companies passed very stringent rules governing packages, and imposed a charge on certain kinds of goods, but it appears that the outside messengers can afford to pay the charges and still make a reasonable profit.

A DECREASE

The report of the township trustees for this month shows a slight decrease over that of last month. The amount of money expended would have been considerably smaller had it not been for the wet weather, as the trustees were compelled to buy footwear for many people. The report is as follows: Township, $200; county, $42.82. Last month the amount expended was: Township, $233.96; county, $57.69. The trustees expect their next report to show a considerable shrinkage in expenses.

IN EVERY WARD.

Measles Signs Are Well Scattered In the City.

Several new cases of measles were reported to the health authorities today, and three cases yesterday. The disease has spread throughout the city, and signs can be seen on houses in almost every street. One resident, whose business takes him to all parts of town, is responsible for the statement that never in the history of the city was an ailment so well scattered. He never before saw so many cards announcing the presence of disease.

In Bad Shape.

The Wellsville road is an abomination. At a point where a portion of the hill came down it is almost as bad as if there was no road.

LOVE IS ALWAYS KIND

Put It at the Head of a Church or Banking House.

IT IS ALWAYS JUST THE SAME

It is Always Looking For Other People and Is Ever Ready to Make Sacrifice. Another Strong Sermon From Evangelist Naylor.

The miserable weather had some effect upon the attendance at the Methodist Protestant church last night. Before the sermon the congregation joined in a song service especially prepared for the evening.

The talk of the evening was selected from the thirteenth chapter of Corinthians. Reverend Naylor in part said:

"Sell all your potteries, sell all your good clothes, your houses, your jewelry and even go further burn your body but what you feed the poor. But when I say this I mean to say it with the love of God. There is nothing in Christ but love. Love is always kind. It doesn't matter about your neighbor, how he lives, or whether your brother gets on better in the world than you, you will not envy these people because the love of God is shed abroad in your heart. Love envieth not. Love does not get puffed up. Love is love, and it does not vaunt itself. Put it at the head of a church and it is the same, put it at the head of a banking house and it is also the same. O, my friends when you have love in your heart and you learn how wonderful it is. Love is always looking for other people. Love makes the greatest sacrifices to bless other people. Love does all things right. Love that fills the heart is not easily provoked. Understand me love is not easily provoked to a wrong. This perfect love does not destroy the natural temperment in men and women. All evil motives in men and women are often put aside just on account of the love of Christ. It is possible to prove this by asking every Christian. The theory some men are standing by is to doubt, but if you are careful you can put these motives to the test by taking God, His love. I dislike to see one who is quite good—they are sometimes backsliders. Watch your conversation, your actions. Let them be of the best. This is love. Evil thoughts will come; well thinking evil are two different things. The man who says he can go through the world, and never have an evil thought in his mind I tell you that man is a fool. There are no angels on the earth, never will there be any. Evil thoughts will always flash through our minds, but when it comes to the performing of these thoughts love will put a stop to these actions of your will. Crows will fly over your head in spite of all you can do, but you can stop them from alighting on you. So I say further:

"Love is the greatest thing that will put evil thoughts away. Everything we see was once a thought, and it seems to me we are living in a world of thought. The worst deed ever committed was once a thought. But my friends I tell you evil thoughts can be put away by constant praying to God. Love repels all evil. Let us remember that one word love. When you were a child you did as a child, but now you people are all grown up, why not let your love also grow. When you were a child in Christ, you just trained for Christian men and women. Have you done this? Put away your childish ideas, your ailments, quit your crying and whining. That's natural for a child to act. Get out of your baby habits, let us be men, let us be women. Have faith with charity and lastly have God's love in your soul, that it may be the ruler of your soul, that it may be the ruler of your deeds, acts and motions. Let love rule in your home and your life will always be happy."

APPLES ARE CHEAP

And Thousands of Barrels Have Been Shipped From the County.

Albert McDonald yesterday shipped the last car of apples he will send from this city. They went west, and the last put in the car made a total of 7,000 barrels he has shipped from this place during the season. Mr. McDonald will next week send three cars from Wellsville.

There are still many apples in this part of the county, and they can be bought from the farmers at 25 cents a bushel, while retailers are only asking 40 cents in the city.

BUCHANAN BUILDING BURNED.

A Destructive Fire In Beaver Early This Morning.

BEAVER, March 25.—[Special]—The handsome Buchanan building was totally destroyed by fire this morning. Loss $22,000, insurance $20,000.

The fire was discovered soon after 6 o'clock this morning, and within half an hour had gained such headway that all hope of saving the building was lost. Within the hour the building was a mass of ruins. The fire burned fiercely, and all the department could do was of no avail. For a time it appeared as though the whole block would be destroyed, and parties living in neighboring houses moved out.

The Beaver Star, Shillito Bros., dry goods, and a number of attorneys occupied the building. The plant of the Star was completely destroyed, the loss being especially heavy, as the press and type were new. A number of valuable law libraries went up in smoke. The Star was insured for $5,000. The paper appeared this afternoon, having been printed in the office of the New Brighton News. The Buchanan building was erected by Robert Hall, of East Liverpool.

THE BENEFIT.

The Grand Was Crowded to Hear Frank Daniels and His Singers.

The fourth annual benefit performance given by the Elks at the Grand Opera House was a pronounced success in every way. The theater was crowded, and the "Wizard of the Nile" was all that could be expected.

Frank Daniels as Kibosh was as he always is a very funny man, and the singing of Miss Louisa Royce and Miss Frances Burkhardt and Mr. Louis Caravant and Leonard Walker captivated the audience. The chorus was very good. Although sadly in need of space on the stage the piece was presented in a manner highly satisfactory, and the applause of the audience testified the appreciation of the people. The piece is bright and winning, and allows Mr. Daniels the opportunity of appearing to excellent advantage.

Wellsville, Lisbon and other places in this vicinity were represented in the audience.

CRITICIZES THE DOCTOR.

A Business Man Has a Word on His Financial Ideas.

A prominent business man in commenting this morning on the idea advanced by Doctor Marshall in regard to a special tax levy said: "There is no law at present that will give the city the power to make a special levy. Nine mills is all it is allowed, and we are taxed to that now. Four mills more were allowed by special act of legislature but they cannot be used in any other place than in sinking and interest funds. We have used three mills, and the only levy that can be made is of one mill, and it will have to go in either of these funds. A special act of legislature could do it, but that is something hard to get these days. The city does not need it any how. During the past year $4,500 of the debt was paid off with the present levy. It only requires a little economizing, that is all."

TORE A SILK DRESS.

One Damaging Result of Exhibiting Barbed Wire.

There was an angry lady in the city the other evening. As the wife of a well-known manufacturing potter went by a hardware store it was necessary to turn out of the way in order to allow people coming from the other direction to pass. A bundle of barbed wire was on exhibition on the pavement, and the lady's handsome silk dress caught a barb. A large piece was torn out before she knew what had happened.

RETURNED THE TOOLS

Then Johnson Was Allowed to Go His Way In Peace.

Amos Jones yesterday entered suit before Squire Rose against James Johnson for the larceny of some coal digging tools. The young man was arrested and brought into court last evening, when he pleaded guilty to the charge and was dismissed, after paying the costs in the case and returning the tools.

—Charles Eachel, of Beaver, Pa., was a city visitor yesterday.

TWO MORMON ELDERS

They Will Endeavor to Convert the City.

ONE MAN TALKS FOR BOTH

They Travel Without Money and Without Price, and Receive Nothing For Their Services—One Is a Republican, and Thinks the Last Victory a Good Thing.

John Y. Barlow, of Wood's Cross, Utah, and Harry Larson, of Idaho, are in this city. Both are elders of the Mormon church, and are now traveling in this part of the country seeking converts to Mormonism. They are stopping at the residence of John Webb, 105 Third street.

Elder Barlow was seen this morning, and, in speaking about the "Church of Latter Day Saints," said:

"We travel in pairs, like the apostles of old, and defray all our expenses. I have been preaching in the east about 19 months, and Elder Kelsch has been with me two weeks, having met me in Allegheny county. Our work in that county was most fruitful, especially in New England. That we are condemning other churches is an impression that is entirely false. What we are doing is trying to teach the gospel of Christ as we believe it. Tomorrow I am going to call upon the mayor to obtain permission to hold meetings in this city. Several of the saints are now after a hall. Whether one will be secured I cannot say. The hall rent must be free—otherwise we will hold meetings in the streets. After that it is our intention to circulate our literature throughout the town and surrounding country, and do all the good we can. All we desire to do is merely to show the people of this city the inside of our belief, and then let them choose for themselves. We have no salaried preachers in our church—everything is free, just as the gospel." At this point the elder quoted a lot of St. Paul.

"The elders leave their homes in the west, and travel over the country without money and without price. We are elders of the old original churches taught by Brigham Young, now deceased, but now by Joseph Smith. As to polygamy, that was abolished by the president in 1892. A manifesto was then issued by President Willford Woodruff calling attention to the ruling of the president of the nation and ordered the practice stopped. Since that time no man has married more than one woman. Our beliefs are not many. They are simple, and easily lived up to, and are different in many respects from the new church of Latter Day saints."

The elders expect to be in the city for some time and secure as many followers as possible. What success they will meet with can only be surmised. Mr. Barlow seems to be the spokesman of the two, and is well up in knowledge of scriptures. Both men are farmers and have left their families. Elder Kelsch said the election of Mr. McKinley to the presidency was a God send to the west as far as he could see, "although I don't meddle much in politics."

NEW FURNITURE

Will Be Placed In Spring Grove Dormitory.

The ladies of Spring Grove will hold their next meeting April 21. The committees will make full reports, and additional committees will be appointed. It is proposed to entirely refurnish the dormitory and make it first class in all respects, and on the opening day a birthday poke party will be held in the grounds.

A HARD BATTLE.

Local Sports Held a Cocking Main at Line Island.

A cocking main was held yesterday afternoon at Line island by parties from this city. The first fight lasted one hour and 30 minutes before the winner could be picked. In the second battle one of the chickens was killed by the other, with one blow. The chickens in the first fight will die.

Master Vandersall.

EDITOR NEWS REVIEW:—I had the pleasure of listening to the Vandersall children at the opera house the other night. The little lady won many friends by her talent. Master Stanley is simply wonderful in his delineations, when one takes into consideration that he is but ten years old. His personation of our ministerial brethren was simply superb, and the enthusiastic applause and encore demonstrated the fact that the entire audience appreciated the treat as fully as did your humble servant, Mrs. T. W.

Measles Signs Are Well Scattered In the City.

Several new cases of measles were reported to the health authorities today, and three cases yesterday. The disease has spread throughout the city, and signs can be seen on houses in almost every street. One resident, whose business takes him to all parts of town, is responsible for the statement that never in the history of the city was an ailment so well scattered. He never before saw so many cards announcing the presence of disease.

LOVE IS ALWAYS KIND

Put It at the Head of a Church or Banking House.

IT IS ALWAYS JUST THE SAME

It Is Always Looking For Other People and Is Ever Ready to Make Sacrifice. Another Strong Sermon From Evangelist Naylor.

The miserable weather had some effect upon the attendance at the Methodist Protestant church last night. Before the sermon the congregation joined in a song service especially prepared for the evening.

The talk of the evening was selected from the thirteenth chapter of Corinthians. Reverend Naylor in part said:

"Sell all your potteries, sell all your good clothes, your houses, your jewelry and even go further burn your body but what you feed the poor. But when I say this I mean to say it with the love of God. There is nothing in Christ but love. Love is always kind. It doesn't matter about your neighbor, how he lives, or whether your brother gets on better in the world than you, you will not envy there these people because the love of God is shed abroad in your heart. Love envieth not. Love does not get puffed up. Love is love, and it does not vaunt itself. Put it at the head of a church and it is the same, put it at the head of a banking house and it is also the same. O, my friends when you have love in your heart and you learn how wonderful it is. Love is always looking for other people. Love makes the greatest sacrifices to bless other people. Love does all things right. Love that fills the heart is not easily provoked. Understand me love is not easily provoked to a wrong. This perfect love does not destroy the natural temperament in men and women.

"All evil motives in men and women are often put aside just on account of the love of Christ. It is possible to prove this by asking every Christian. The theory some men are standing by is to doubt, but if you are careful you can put these motives to the test by taking God, His love. I dislike to see one who is quite good—they are sometimes backsliders. Watch your conversation, your actions. Let them be of the best. This is love.

"Evil thoughts will come; well thinking evil are two different things. The man who says he can go through the world, and never have an evil thought in his mind I tell you that man is a fool. There are no angels on the earth, never will there be any. Evil thoughts will always flash through our minds, but when it comes to the performing of these thoughts love will put a stop to these actions of your will. Crows will fly over your head in spite of all you can do, but you can stop them from alighting on you. So I say further:

"Love is the greatest thing that will put evil thoughts away. Everything we see was once a thought, and it seems to me we are living in a world of thought. The worst deed ever committed was once a thought. But my friends I tell you evil thoughts can be put away by constant praying to God. Love repels all evil. Let us remember that one word love. When you were a child you did as a child, but now you people are all grown up, why not let your love also grow. When you were a child in Christ, you just trained for Christian men and women. Have you done this? "Put away your childish ideas, your ailments, quit your crying and whining. That's natural for a child to act. Get out of your baby habits, let us be men, let us be women. Have faith with charity and lastly have God's love in your soul, that it may be the ruler of your soul, that it may be the ruler of your deeds, acts and motions. Let love rule in your home and your life will always be happy."

APPLES ARE CHEAP

And Thousands of Barrels Have Been Shipped From the County.

Albert McDonald yesterday shipped the last car of apples he will send from this city. They went west, and the last put in the car made a total of 7,000 barrels he has shipped from this place during the season. Mr. McDonald will next week send three cars from Wells-ville.

There are still many apples in this part of the county, and they can be bought from the farmers at 25 cents a bushel, while retailers are only asking 40 cents in the city.

BUCHANAN BUILDING BURNED.

A Destructive Fire In Beaver Early This Morning.

BEAVER, March 25.—[Special]—The handsome Buchanan building was totally destroyed by fire this morning. Loss $22,000, insurance $20,000.

The fire was discovered soon after 6 o'clock this morning, and within half an hour had gained such headway that all hope of saving the building was lost. Within the hour the building was a mass of ruins. The fire burned fiercely, and all the department could do was of no avail. For a time it appeared as though the whole block would be destroyed, and parties living in neighboring houses moved out.

The Beaver Star, Shillito Bros., dry goods, and a number of attorneys occupied the building. The plant of the Star was completely destroyed, the loss being especially heavy, as the press and type were new. A number of valuable law libraries went up in smoke. The Star was insured for $5,000. The paper appeared this afternoon, having been printed in the office of the New Brighton News. The Buchanan building was erected by Robert Hall, of East Liverpool.

THE BENEFIT.

The Grand Was Crowded to Hear Frank Daniels and His Singers.

The fourth annual benefit performance given by the Elks at the Grand Opera House was a pronounced success in every way. The theater was crowded, and the "Wizard of the Nile" was all that could be expected.

Frank Daniels as Kibosh was as he always is a very funny man, and the singing of Miss Louisa Royce and Miss Frances Burkhardt and Mr. Louis Caravant and Leonard Walker captivated the audience. The chorus was very good. Although sadly in need of space on the stage the piece was presented in a manner highly satisfactory, and the applause of the audience testified the appreciation of the people. The piece is bright and winning, and allows Mr. Daniels the opportunity of appearing to excellent advantage.

Wellsville, Lisbon and other places in this vicinity were represented in the audience.

CRITICIZES THE DOCTOR.

A Business Man Has a Word on His Financial Ideas.

A prominent business man in commenting this morning on the idea advanced by Doctor Marshall in regard to a special tax levy said: "There is no law at present that will give the city the power to make a special levy. Nine mills is all it is allowed, and we are taxed to that now. Four mills more were allowed by special act of legislature but they cannot be used in any other place than in sinking and interest funds. We have used three mills, and the only levy that can be made is of one mill, and it will have to go in either of these funds. A special act of legislature could do it, but that is something hard to get these days. The city does not need it any how. During the past year $4,500 of the debt was paid off with the present levy. It only requires a little economizing, that is all."

TORE A SILK DRESS.

One Damaging Result of Exhibiting Barbed Wire.

There was an angry lady in the city the other evening. As the wife of a well-known manufacturing potter vent by a hardware store it was necessary to turn out of the way in order to allow people coming from the other direction to pass. A bundle of barbed wire was on exhibition on the pavement, and the lady's handsome silk dress caught a barb. A large piece was torn out before she knew what had happened.

Then Johnson Was Allowed to Go His Way in Peace.

TWO MORMON ELDERS

They Will Endeavor to Convert the City.

ONE MAN TALKS FOR BOTH

They Travel Without Money and Without Price, and Receive Nothing For Their Services—One Is a Republican, and Thinks the Last Victory a Good Thing.

John Y. Barlow, of Wood's Cross, Utah, and Harry Larson, of Idaho, are in this city. Both are elders of the Mormon church, and are now traveling in this part of the country seeking converts to Mormonism. They are stopping at the residence of John Webb, 105 Third street.

Elder Barlow was seen this morning, and, in speaking about the "Church of Latter Day Saints," said:

"We travel in pairs, like the apostles of old, and defray all our expenses. I have been preaching in the east about 19 months, and Elder Kelsch has been with me two weeks, having met me in Allegheny county. Our work in that county was most fruitful, especially in New England. That we are condemning other churches is an impression that is entirely false. What we are doing is trying to teach the gospel of Christ as we believe it. Tomorrow I am going to call upon the mayor to obtain permission to hold meetings in this city. Several of the saints are now after a hall. Whether one will be secured I cannot say. The hall rent must be free—with special stress on the must—otherwise we will hold meetings in the streets. After that it is our intention to circulate our literature throughout the town and surrounding country, and do all the good we can. All we desire to do is merely to show the people of this city the inside of our belief, and then let them choose for themselves. We have no salaried preachers in our church—everything is free, just as the gospel." At this point the elder quoted a lot of St. Paul.

"The elders leave their homes in the west, and travel over the country without money and without price. We are elders of the old original churches taught by Brigham Young, now deceased, but now by Joseph Smith. As to polygamy, that was abolished by the president in 1892. A manifesto was then issued by President Willford Woodruff calling attention to the ruling of the president of the nation and ordered the practice stopped. Since that time no man has married more than one woman. Our beliefs are not many. They are simple, and easily lived up to, and are different in many respects from the new church of Latter Day saints."

The elders expect to be in the city for some time and secure as many followers as possible. What success they will meet with can only be surmised. Mr. Barlow seems to be the spokesman of the two, and is well up in knowledge of scriptures. Both men are farmers and have left their families. Elder Kelsch said the election of Mr. McKinley to the presidency was a God send to the west as far as he could see, "although I don't meddle much in politics."

Master Vandersall.

EDITOR NEWS REVIEW:—I had the pleasure of listening to the Vandersall children at the opera house the other night. The little lady won many friends by her talent. Master Stanley is simply wonderful in his delineations, when one takes into consideration that he is but ten years old. His personation of our ministerial brethren was simply superb, and the enthusiastic applause and encore demonstrated the fact that the entire audience appreciated the treat as fully as did your humble servant,

FIVE BURNED TO DEATH.

Murder and Robbery Thought to Have Caused a Tennessee Fire.

NASHVILLE, March 25.—On Paradise ridge, in this country, where there is quite a settlement of thirty Germans, the house of Jacob Ade was discovered to be on fire and was in ruins before help could reach the place.

In the ruins were found the almost entirely consumed bodies of Jacob Ade, Mrs. Jacob Ade, Lizzie Ade, aged 30 years, Henry Ade, aged 13 years, and Rosa Moirer, aged 10 years.

The murder theory is most generally believed. It is based by some on robbery, because Ade was known to keep money on hand and to have had several hundred dollars in the house.

But if robbery was the motive the robbers failed, for in the ruins was found a tin can containing the remains of a large roll of bills.

MULLIN'S ATTACK.

The Democratic Leader Assailed the Tariff Measure.

GROSVENOR DEFENDED THE BILL.

WASHINGTON, March 25.—Senator Grosvenor defended the tariff measure today in the Senate. He said that the tariff was a measure of necessity and that it was necessary to protect the country from foreign competition.

WASHINGTON, March 25.—Interest in the tariff debate in the Senate has grown since the House passed the bill. The Senate is expected to vote on the bill tomorrow.

The speeches of Congressman McMullin of Tennessee for the Democrats and Congressman Grosvenor of Ohio for the Republicans provoked great enthusiasm.

Mr. McMullin presented his remarks with some figures to prove that there was a sufficient surplus ($118,000,000, exclusive of the gold reserve) in the treasury to meet all estimated deficiencies for two years and that the alleged necessity for this bill was a mere pretext. He prophesied a repetition of the disaster which overtook the Congress that enacted the McKinley law if this bill were passed and made the Republican change of front on the question of sugar bounties the text for some caustic remarks. Despite the appeals of the Louisiana sugar growers, he declared the bounty was established in 1890.

"The cry of a free breakfast table had gone forth," said he, "and although everything on the breakfast table except coffee was taxed, the promise made that sugar should be put on the free list was kept, and only the tax necessary to enable the sugar trust to exact its millions from the American people—half a cent a pound between raw and refined sugar—was imposed. But you will search in vain for free sugar in this bill, or anything else free which benefits the American people. All the demagogic cry of a 'free breakfast table' has had to be abandoned. But what becomes of all those fervent utterances which rang through these halls only seven years ago, proclaiming the beauties of free sugar? What has become of the laudation of free sugar by the cohorts of protection and the advocates of protection?"

"Remember how the melodious voice of the present chief magistrate proclaimed the boon of untaxed sugar. I remember how the gentleman from Maine, who now increases the tax on sugar, proclaimed that the sugar tax was a burden part by the consumer. I remember how the vigorous and vehement gentleman from New York, Mr. Payne, stood up and lauded the Republican party for taking the tax off sugar. If the transfer to the free list of sugar and molasses gave the greatest relief, then it must follow that the reimposition of high tax on sugar will be the greatest hardship now. Not only have they reimposed this burden of taxation, but in doing so they have taken good care of the corporations and trusts which now control the sugar market. The profit to the trust is raised by this bill from one-eighth of a cent a pound by the present law to from 35 to 40 cents on the 100 pounds difference between raw and refined."

He discussed in detail the metal schedule, arguing that as we were becoming heavy shippers of pigiron, which he said could be produced in the southern states as cheaply as any place in the world, the duty of $4 per ton should have been reduced. He declared that the agricultural schedule was a humbug and enumerated a long list of trusts which he said would fatten on the bill.

"After a careful and painstaking examination of this bill," he said, "I do not hesitate to declare it the most unconscionable effort at legislative robbery ever attempted upon a people. Neither the great fire of Chicago nor of Boston, nor the fearful flood that now devastates the Southland, could begin to compare with this bill. This bill carries not only a higher rate of duty than the present law and higher rates than the McKinley bill, but higher than any law ever passed by an American Congress or groaned under by an American people.

"The reciprocity clause is remarkable for the fact that it gives into the hands of the president absolutely the power to impose taxes and remit taxes at pleasure. He can impose them this month and remit them the next. He can do so without convening Congress, or consulting it if convened. The taxing power is thereby surrendered by Congress—its constitutional repository—to an executive who was never clothed with such power by any statute passed by those who adopted the constitution. The reciprocity clause is an effort to counteract the ill effects of the malleable tariff. If reports are true, it is more than likely that some such safety valve will be needed, for already France, Canada and other governments are preparing to resist this assault on commerce."

"I beg the gentleman on the other side to remember that their victory obtained last fall was obtained by such an expenditure of money, such an exertion of bulldozing and force and such a prostitution of the name of the people before witnessed in this land. They must not take such a verdict as the established and irrevocable will of the American people. I beg them to remember that a purchased verdict cannot stand. The Democratic party has suffered defeat before, and by stern adherence to never failing principle, it has regained power and readministered government. Let us now and here resolve anew that the principles of Jefferson, of Jackson, and of Polk shall be the principles of the Democratic party now, as they have been in the past and as sure as the day succeeds the night it will return to power and restore the government to the constitutional moorings from which it has been wrested by such malleable legislation that which is being forced upon us today."

Mr. Grosvenor, in the course of his speech said: "We are here to execute the people's demands. The demand of the intelligent for a protective tariff system comes not from partisan utterances, but from the men of all parties and every section of the country. The fruitgrower of California ruined by the Wilson bill, cries loudly for Republicans for assistance and from Alabama and Georgia and conspicuously from Louisiana comes the earnest demand for the passage of this bill.

"What then is the great necessity of this hour. Two evils are upon us: unemployed labor and a bankrupt treasury. There can be no business confidence in this country without funds to meet its current obligations."

Mr. Grosvenor paid some attention to the statements that although McKinley was elected "prosperity had not yet come." Gentlemen, he answered, must bear in mind that a violation of law always merits and always receives punishment. The country that would turn its back upon the prosperity of 1892 and descend "into the blender of 1894" must expect punishment.

There was no better doctrine in all the range of human thought than the blessings that follow repentance come only when "works meet for repentance have been done."

There stands upon the statue books of today the accused law that was put there by the blinded of bourbon Democracy. While it stands there the curse will remain. The curse is lightened, however, by the prospect that "works meet for repentance" will be accomplished and so from Maine to California there comes the cheering sound of improved conditions, but while this is being done, while the shout of anticipated emancipation are coming to us from all sources, while money is plentiful and becoming active, while enormous contracts for production, which will insure the employment of enormous quantities of idle labor, are coming to us the Democratic party on the floor, with its allies all alike, are standing holding on to the coat-tails of the world and leaning back impeding the progress of that prosperity, they shout a whoa to the moving mass of American people. Said he: "You have not only brought the curse upon the country, but you are trying to hold it there."

Continuing Mr. Grosvenor said in part: "It has been the purpose of the ways and means committee to present a measure here that would bring first an abundance of money in the treasury and second the employment of the labor of the country. We want to go back to 1892. We want to see what we have not seen since then, contented laborers, well fed families, children going to school with good clothes; good houses, good books and good prosperity in the future. We believe we have accomplished it."

"We have provided in this bill for the expenditure in the United States ultimately of more than $300,000,000 per annum to the laborers of the country above that which has been derived heretofore. Under the operations of this bill we look for $125,000,000 now sent abroad to buy sugar, will, every dollar of it, be expended in the United States. We look for that time, and shortly, when, under the operations of this bill, every spindle in the United States will turn, and the enormous payments for labor, the end of which passed in 1892, shall again be a part of the heritage of the laboring man."

"We believe that the farmer in the mighty farms of the west, on the rich soil of the south and everywhere will be benefited by this bill."

"We propose to build up the industries of sugar growing, and thus devote to that great industry many tens of thousands of acres of the rich land of the United States and take that land out of competition with the farm."

"The policy of this bill has been, and is will be, if it should pass into law, to give to the laborer that degree of employment in the United States which will cause to be expended in this country every dollar that is expended for such products of the soil, of the mine, of the shop and of the factory that are produced in the United States on equal terms with the foreign producer."

"We propose that this country shall put itself upon a war footing for the purpose of maintaining itself. We propose that it shall be in a position to produce its own sugar and its own wool and its own commodities of every character that God in his wisdom has made it possible to produce on this continent."

Then turning aside from a discussion of the merits of the tariff, Mr. Grosvenor reviewed and criticized the history and attitude of the Democratic party on national issues, while he commended in warm terms the record of the Republicans on these matters.

In conclusion he said: "And my countrymen in this hour the Republican party is called upon by voices that out of all the memories of the past and sound out of all the teachings of today to stand by the principles of its party and give to the country this Dingley law."

"I congratulate my distinguished leader that his name is to be associated with another act of redemption. Lincoln's name has been forever linked with his emancipation proclamation. McKinley's name has been forever linked with the McKinley law and Dingley's name shall go sounding down the corridors of time as champion of the law that after the great struggle in 1896 brought back the country to prosperity and peace."

A Competitive Examination Said to Have Been Ordered.

WASHINGTON, March 25.—The executive committee of the bureau of American republics was in session for an hour at the state department considering the matter of a change in the office of director. Senator Romero, the Mexican minister, under plea that no good purpose was served by making public the differences that had arisen on the subject between the committee and the state department, succeeded in imposing a pledge of secrecy upon the other members of the committee as to the result of the meeting.

It is understood, however, that the resignation of the present director, Mr. Furbish, was accepted and an examination ordered for his successor.

THE SOUTH REJOICES.

Belief That the Flood Will Soon Recede.

MOST LEVEES EXPECTED TO HOLD.

Two More Breaks Occurred, but They Were Known to Be Weak—The Continued Fair Weather Most Favorable to the Situation—The Work of Rescue.

MEMPHIS, March 25.—The situation regarding the flood remains practically unchanged. The fact that the levees below the city on the Mississippi side still remain intact and the good news that they will probably be able to withstand any further rise is calculated to make the outlook more and more cheering.

The dispatches giving the good news concerning the condition of the levees below this city may be relied upon as authentic, being received by the railroad officials from their agents at various points. In addition to these was a message from Major Dabney confirming the good news, he himself having completed a personal inspection of the system of levees below Memphis, on the Mississippi side.

The work of the relief committee continues without any abatement. The committee is kept busy providing for the wants of the 3,000 destitute people, who are here dependent upon charity. Nor has the stream of newcomers ceased. While the relief boats do not make as many trips as they did during the first few days following the overflow, nor do they bring as many refugees at each trip, they always bring some additions to swell the crowd of refugees.

The continued fair weather is most favorable, and each day of sunshine is welcomed as a harbinger of good to the extent that with no untoward rainfalls to swell the mighty volume of waters, the end may be the sooner expected. News has been received by United States Engineer Fitch that the levee on the Arkansas side has broken in two places below Memphis, at Dawson, which is about 138 miles below Memphis, and one not far below Modoc.

The report concerning these breaks seems authentic, as Engineer Fitch has acted upon them with promptness. He has sent a boat with barges and skiffs for the assistance of the people in the country affected by these breaks. The details concerning the break at Dawson are meager. The break near Modoc was not unexpected, as the levee seems to be weak in that vicinity, several breaks having already occurred in spite of every effort to prevent such disasters.

THE WESTERN UNIVERSITY.

Governor Hastings and Staff in the Anniversary Parade.

PITTSBURG, March 25.—The second day of the celebration of the "110-75" anniversary of the Western University of Pennsylvania opened with the eleventh annual meeting of Medical Alumni association at the medical department, Brereton avenue.

A conference also occurred at the Carnegie library, at which various subjects of educational interest were discussed by Dr. N. O. Scheffer, superintendent of public instruction of Pennsylvania; President T. M. Drown, Lehigh; Rector T. J. Conaty, D. D., Catholic University of America; President A. V. R. Raymond, Union; President W. O. Thompson, Miami; President D. B. Parinton, Denison, and others.

The event of the day was the great parade of the military and the civic demonstration of the public school children of the two cities. The former was represented by the Fourteenth and Eighteenth regiments of the national guard and Governor Hastings and staff. The new medical building was also dedicated.

A fantastic parade occurred last night.

GRANT MONUMENT PARADE.

General Dodge Says It Will Be the Greatest Since the War.

NEW YORK, March 25.—Major General Granville M. Dodge, grand marshal of the Grant monument inaugural parade, says that the showing to be made of the United States infantry, cavalry and artillery on April 27 will be the largest ever seen in this country, with the exception of the parade in Washington at the close of the war. The North Atlantic squadron will return to this harbor for the spring rendezvous on April 20, and the marines and bluejackets will come ashore on the morning of April 27 and participate in the parade. The squadron will anchor in the Hudson river, opposite Grant's tomb, and fire a salute.

PRESIDENT MCKINLEY SORRY.

Orders Flowers Sent to the Funeral of Painter.

WASHINGTON, March 25.—President McKinley learned with deep regret of the death of William Painter of Altoona. He remembered perfectly the incident in Pittsburg where Painter received the injuries that have cost him his life, and expressed his sorrow in feeling terms.

He instructed his secretary to see that a floral emblem from the White House conservatory is forwarded to the funeral. He will also write a personal letter to the relatives of the deceased man, extending his condolences.

Injured Seeling McKinley.

ALTOONA, Pa., March 25.—William Painter, a well-known resident of this city, has died from the effects of injuries received when President McKinley passed through Pittsburg. In trying to see the president the young man was forced against a post.

For a Statue at Gettysburg.

WASHINGTON, March 25.—The senate library committee has presented a favorable report on the bill introduced by Senator Callon of Illinois, appropriating $50,000 for a statue of Lincoln at Gettysburg, Pa.

ANOTHER HARD KNOCK

Is Given That Miserable Old
Lisbon Jail.

BOARD OF VISITORS CONDEMN IT

They Report That It Is Unfit For Prisoners and the Sheriff's Family Should Not Be Compelled to Occupy the Building—A Matter of Morals.

The movement looking to a new jail at Lisbon received another push toward success when the county board of visitors officially condemned it yesterday afternoon. All members of the board were present when the official visit was made, and the report was unanimous. It follows:

"After a careful examination of the jail building, the visiting board, appointed by the court of Columbiana county, report that it is not a suitable place wherein any one should be confined, or the family of the sheriff should live. Its condition is unhealthy, resulting from poor ventilation, worst of sewerage, improper heating, bad floors, and general poor condition of the building. We are therefore united in the opinion that another jail is needed, one so constructed that the proper sanitary arrangements will not be lacking, and arranged so the morals of the young in crime will not be contaminated by contact with hardened criminals."

Mrs. Harry Palmer, of this city, and Mrs. Aten, of Wellsville, members of the board from this part of the county, returned from Lisbon last night.

HARKIN'S HALLUCINATION.

A Salineville Man Thinks He Is Stuffed Full of Hair.

Lisbon, March 25.—[Special]—John Harkin, whose mental condition has puzzled the authorities, was declared insane last night. He is a miner employed at Salineville since last November, but owing to the fact that he has a legal residence at Haseltine, Pa., he cannot be sent to Newburg. An effort will be made to have him admitted into a Pennsylvania institution. He thinks he is stuffed with hair and coal dust, while his teeth are strung with electric wires.

Stewart Baker, constable of Salineville, has been appointed guard at the Mansfield reformatory, and will enter upon his duties April 1.

William Wernett has sued William Humphries to recover $1,000 on a note. The Miller Hardware company, of Canton, has sued G. W. Meredith, of Liverpool for $201.81. The amount is claimed on a contract by which the company was to complete the saloon fixtures in what is known as the Leader in Canton.

I. F. Brainard, executor of the late C. C. Brainard, of Salem, has sued the Salem street railway to recover $2,750 of the purchase money of the Brainard homestead.

Scarcely a month ago in Salem township the marriage of Edgar Haviland and Hannah Barthley was celebrated, and yesterday she sued for alimony. He had been previously married and had four children, and when the second wife came she brought another. The court is not informed as to the difficulty.

WALKER WHITESIDE TOMORROW.

The Tragedian Will Be Received by a Good House.

The appearance of Waker Whiteside at the Grand tomorrow night has excited much more than the usual interest among theater goers, and the advance sale of seats goes far toward showing that he will be greeted by a large audience. Mr. Whiteside has made such strides since his last appearance in this city that he is now looked upon by eminent dramatic critics as one of America's leading tragedians.

Don't fail to hear Professor N. M. Holmes, of Beaver college, on Monday night next, March 29, in the First M. E. church. Admission 25 cents. Proceeds for the benefit of the church.

They Didn't Know.

The large audience at the Grand last night did not know it, but they almost missed hearing the best part of the opera. The stage was very cold during the first act, and Mr. Daniels declared the company should not go on if the thermometer did not show more heat.

Good Men.

Out on Hill street there is a sad family, a mother whose heart is nearly broken; a father who is almost on the border of insanity. This has all come about on account of a happening, the beginning of which dates back a few weeks. A daughter, a scholar at the Central school, aged about 16 years, was led astray by a demon hailing from Rochester. Three weeks ago he came to this city, it is said, to get out of the way of Rochester officers. Here he met the young lady on her way to school. His good looks, gentlemanly demeanor and smooth tongue completely won her heart. The parents had become aware of the circumstance and were careful, not allowing her to go alone to town at night. Last Saturday night she was permitted to visit a young lady friend. On her way she met this wolf in sheep's clothing, and was enticed to a saloon in the West End, where she was made drunk and treated like a brute. It is said by one, who seems to know, that she was completely disrobed, and treated in a shameful manner. Meantime the father became suspicious, and made thorough search with the aid of officers all Saturday night, but with no success. Sunday morning they heard the girl was at the saloon, but she could not be found. Late in the evening she returned home, but would not or could not give an account of herself. Yesterday afternoon her father went to the saloon, understanding that some of the girl's apparel and an umbrella were there. He became involved in a difficulty with the proprietor, but Chief Warren appeared and arrested him. Late in the afternoon the saloonkeeper was seen, and rehearsed what had happened with the father, claiming he was drunk and wished to "stir up a racket." The police now have papers for the arrest of the demon who led the girl astray, and all diligence is being made to find him.

Councilmen Think the Park Should Be Changed.

Members of council have been discussing the advisability of moving trees in the park on Broadway. They would have the trees moved to the border of the lawn and a path constructed. The improvement, they believe, would be so marked as to gain for them the honor of the people. The plan may be brought before council in the near future.

MORE MONEY FOR WOOL

Buyers Are Offering the Best
Price For Years.

TWENTY CENTS THE HIGHEST

Much Is Being Bought at That Rate, but
Some Farmers Are Holding Out For a Better Figure—The Advance Agent Has Arrived.

Farmers, who have been for several years patiently waiting until the advent of a Republican administration would increase the price of wool, are now reaping the first fruits of the late election. A great deal of wool is being bought in this vicinity, and the price paid ranges from 19 to 20 cents.

D. B. Lee, a Carroll county buyer who is in the employ of a Wheeling concern, has been in the city several days. He has called on a number of farmers in West Virginia and Pennsylvania and has already secured wool enough to load several cars. He purchased a car load from a Smith's Ferry man yesterday, and is in that vicinity today. The price paid is more than the farmers have received since the hard times began four years ago. The market has fluctuated somewhat, and at one time the price dropped to nine cents. Those farmers who could afford it did not sell, but many were so badly in need of money that they could not wait for the rise sure to come when the prospect of a tariff once influenced the market. There is a large quantity of wool in this section, on both sides of the river, and Mr. Lee is doing all he can to secure it. Some farmers refused to sell, and are waiting for a further rise.

When love knocks at a woman's heart he usually comes in disguise. Doesn't want it known what he's up to. If she knew all about the little rascal, would she let him in? That's a question. Women are apt to look upon love and marriage as purely a matter of sentiment and affection. That is pretty nearly right; yet there is a practical side to it too, and the best way to preserve the ideal aspect of marriage and maternity is not to forget the practical part of it. A woman cannot be a thoroughly happy wife and mother unless the distinctive physical organism of her sex is in a healthy and vigorous condition. The best friend that woman ever had is the "Favorite Prescription," of Dr. R. V. Pierce, Chief Consulting Physician of the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, Buffalo, N. Y. The "Prescription" is a perfect and infallible remedy for every form of "female weakness." It restores health and strength to the internal organism, which cannot be reached by "local applications," thus the cure is radical, complete and constitutional.

Dr. Pierce's eminent reputation as a physician of wide learning; and his special knowledge of the delicate and intricate organism of women, accounts for the unparalleled confidence, which women place in his "Favorite Prescription" over every other remedy. Its use obviates the necessity of dreaded "examinations" and the stereotyped "local treatments."

Dr. R. V. Pierce, Dear Sir:—I suffered fourteen years with female weakness, nervousness, and general debility, trying everything I could find to help me—all to no avail. I then was told of Dr. Pierce's medicine and although I was thoroughly discouraged, I thought I would try once more to find relief. I took your "Golden Medical Discovery" and "Favorite Prescription," and too much to say. I am now free from the former troubles. Very sincerely yours,
Mrs. J. Stewart.

A STRAY BIT OF NEWS

Picked Up on Church Alley by Our Representative.

When our readers are told that Mr. C. McLean, of 187 Church Alley, has lived amongst us for eleven years, that he conducted three years ago a brick manufactory, and retired from it to enter the East Liverpool Pottery Co.'s employ, ample proof can be produced that all this is so, for Mr. McLean is in the city to verify or contradict it. It is the same with the assertions contained in his state interview the gentleman, when a personal corroboration will be given to what here for the first time is made public. No doubt or suspicion can be thrown on it. Such evidence must be convincing, conclusive, indisputable. Read it. Mr. McLean says: "I used to be troubled a great deal with muscular rheumatism, but the last three years the whole trouble seems to have settled in my back and kidneys, and caused much pain and suffering, the last year being the worst. I had a steady aching pain in my kidneys; extreme weakness in the muscles of the back; could not rest at night except lying flat on my back; and there was a urinary weakness accompanying it. Although I had many bad attacks and used many different medicines, I never obtained any relief. The worst attack I ever had, and which completely used me up, occurred a short time ago. Not having much faith left in medicine, I was rather skeptical when I was recommended to try Doan's Kidney Pills, but I got so bad that I had to get something, so I went for a box to the W. & W. Pharmacy. I am glad to say they are the best thing I ever tried. They went direct to the kidneys, and acted on the very fountain head of all the trouble, relieving me in a very short time. I highly recommend them."

ANOTHER HARD KNOCK

Is Given That Miserable Old
Lisbon Jail.

BOARD OF VISITORS CONDEMN IT

They Report That It Is Unfit For Prisoners and the Sheriff's Family Should Not Be Compelled to Occupy the Building—A Matter of Morals.

The movement looking to a new jail at Lisbon received another push toward success when the county board of visitors officially condemned it yesterday afternoon. All members of the board were present when the official visit was made, and the report was unanimous. It follows:

"After a careful examination of the jail building, the visiting board, appointed by the court of Columbiana county, report that it is not a suitable place wherein any one should be confined, or the family of the sheriff should live. Its condition is unhealthy, resulting from poor ventilation, worst of sewerage, improper heating, bad floors, and general poor condition of the building. We are therefore united in the opinion that another jail is needed, one so constructed that the proper sanitary arrangements will not be lacking, and arranged so the morals of the young in crime will not be contaminated by contact with hardened criminals."

Mrs. Harry Palmer, of this city, and Mrs. Aten, of Wellsville, members of the board from this part of the county, returned from Lisbon last night.

HARKIN'S HALLUCINATION.

A Salineville Man Thinks He Is Stuffed Full of Hair.

LISBON, March 25.—[Special]—John Harkin, whose mental condition has puzzled the authorities, was declared insane last night. He is a miner employed at Salineville since last November, but owing to the fact that he has a legal residence at Haseltine, Pa., he cannot be sent to Newburg. An effort will be made to have him admitted into a Pennsylvania institution. He thinks he is stuffed with hair and coal dust, while his teeth are strung with electric wires.

Stewart Baker, constable of Salineville, has been appointed guard at the Mansfield reformatory, and will enter upon his duties April 1.

William Wernett has sued William Humphries to recover $1,000 on a note. The Miller Hardware company, of Canton, has sued G. W. Meredith, of Liverpool for $201.81. The amount is claimed on a contract by which the company was to complete the saloon fixtures in what is known as the Leader in Canton.

I. F. Brainard, executor of the late C. C. Brainard, of Salem, has sued the Salem street railway to recover $2,750 of the purchase money of the Brainard homestead.

Scarcely a month ago in Salem township the marriage of Edgar Haviland and Hannah Barthel was celebrated, and yesterday she sued for alimony. He had been previously married and had four children, and when the second wife came she brought another. The court is not informed as to the difficulty.

WALKER WHITESIDE TOMORROW.

The Tragedian Will Be Received by a Good House.

The appearance of Waker Whiteside at the Grand tomorrow night has excited much more than the usual interest among theater goers, and the advance sale of seats goes far toward showing that he will be greeted by a large audience. Mr. Whiteside has made such strides since his last appearance in this city that he is now looked upon by eminent dramatic critics as one of America's leading tragedians.

They Didn't Know.

The large audience at the Grand last night did not know it, but they almost missed hearing the best part of the opera. The stage was very cold during the first act, and Mr. Daniels declared a company should not go on if the thermometer did not show more heat.

It cures by restoring health and strength to the internal organism, which cannot be reached by "local applications;" thus the cure is radical, complete and constitutional.

Dr. Pierce's eminent reputation as a physician of wide learning; and his special knowledge of the delicate and intricate organism of women, accounts for the unparalleled confidence, which women place in his "Favorite Prescription." It over every other remedy. Its use obviates the necessity of dreaded "examinations" and the stereotyped "local treatments."

Dr. R. V. Pierce, Dear Sir—I suffered fourteen years with female weakness, nervousness, and general debility trying everything I could find to help me—all to no avail. I then heard of Dr. Pierce's medicine and although I was thoroughly discouraged, I thought I would try once more to find relief. I took your "Golden Medical Discovery" and "Favorite Prescription," and too soon they gave me. I am now free from the former troubles. Very sincerely yours,

(Mrs.) Mary J. Stewart.

A STRAY BIT OF NEWS

Picked Up on Church Alley by Our Representative.

When our readers are told that Mr. C. McLean, of 187 Church Alley, has lived amongst us for eleven years, that he conducted three years ago a brick manufactory, and retired from it to enter the East Liverpool Pottery Co.'s employ, ample proof can be produced that all this is so, for Mr. McLean is in the city to verify or contradict it. It is the same with the assertions contained in his statement that follows. You have only to interview the gentleman, when a personal corroboration will be given to what here for the first time is made public. No doubt or suspicion can be thrown on it. Such evidence must be convincing, conclusive, indisputable. Read it. Mr. McLean says: "I used to be troubled a great deal with muscular rheumatism, but the last three years the whole trouble seems to have settled in my back and kidneys, and caused much pain and suffering, the last year being the worst. I had a steady aching pain in my kidneys; extreme weakness in the muscles of the back; could not rest at night except lying flat on my back; and there was a urinary weakness accompanying it. All through the winter I had attacks and used many different medicines. I never obtained any relief. The worst attack I ever had, and which completely used me up, occurred a short time ago. Not having much faith left in medicine, I was rather skeptical when I was recommended to try Doan's Kidney Pills, but I got so bad that I had to get something, so I went for a box to the W. & W. Pharmacy. I am glad to say they are the best thing I ever tried. They went direct to the kidneys, and acted on the very fountain head of all the trouble, relieving me in a very short time. I highly recommend them."
